

 Center for the Study of Force and Diplomacy
TEMPLE UNIVERSITY®

Presents

Orfeo Fioretos

On

"The Group of Seven and the Origins of Informal Global Economic Governance"

Wednesday,
November 19,
2014

3:30 PM

Gladfelter Hall,
9th Floor,
Weigley Room

Orfeo Fioretos is associate professor of political science at Temple University, Philadelphia. In his talk, he explores the origins and evolution of the G-7, which has become the most durable and important informal organization of international economic governance. At the center of his research are the ideological and institutional battles that defined post-crisis cooperation among large economies in the twentieth century, and the implications of such cooperation for global capitalism in the twenty-first century.

Contact silke.zoller@temple.edu for more details